

Christopher Scotney Autumn / Winter 2009

We are the Midland's premier designerwear store for Men and Children, dedicated to the latest exclusive designer collections. We also hire a wide range of exclusive menswear for that special occasion.

Avoid monotonous multiples, overcrowded shopping centres, fighting to park: We have a huge designer range, the latest looks, knowledgeable, attentive staff, an onsite tailor and a handy car park; all designed to make your shopping experience a real pleasure. As of winter 2009 you will be able to buy on line from our website.

Paul Smith

New for Autumn 2009. Christopher Scotneys are delighted to announce the arrival of Paul Smith London into the store for Autumn Winter 2009.

Paul Smith London is designed for the modern business man who appreciates quality, style and individuality. The look is traditional with a modern twist, combining traditional cloths, contemporary styles, city stripes with contrast linings or large bright over checks which all offer the business man the opportunity to dress with style and individuality.

Visit our contact us page and join our mailing list and you will be entered into our monthly £50 gift voucher prize draw. The winner for August was James Moore of Leicester.

DUCHAMP

Keep it sharp, keep it lively is Duchamp's motto and this season's collection of shirts, ties, cufflinks and socks does just that.

PAL ZILERI

Pal Zileri have the ultimate edge when it comes to formal menswear, and their dedication to quality in every aspect has made them a world leader in this market.

At Christopher Scotneys we have a superb selection of suits and formalwear handpicked from their showrooms in Vicenza.

We also offer a bespoke tailoring service in conjunction with Pal Zileri's master tailors in Italy.

Stone Island owes its continuous success to research and innovation into garment construction and detail and to the use of exclusive materials.

The jacket pictured is part of the rugged rubberized muslin range.
